Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time YEAR B

OCTOBER 20, 2024

Happy Feast of Blessed Theresa of Gerhardinger and Saint Anthony Claret

Blessed Mary Theresa of Jesus Gerhardinger

Our Story as School sisters of Notre Dame begins in the 19th century when God's action took root in a new and unexpected way in the heart and soul of a twelve-year-old girl – Karolina Gerhardinger, Our Blessed Mary Theresa of Jesus Gerhardinger – in Stadtamhof, Bavaria. Her response made way for a new understanding of the Reign of God through the liberation of poor girls and women from domination and dependence.

The special gift given to Mother Theresa came to birth as she felt deeply the painful gap between the gospel and the reality of her time. In bringing the divisions and brokenness caused by this gap to her prayer, Theresa experienced the unifying energy and power of God present in all of life. The Dynamism of this energy coalesced in a longing to bring all into harmony, to bring all things together in God where all is one.

As she responded in faith to the day-to-day concrete situations, Charism took shape, and a distinctive spirituality began to emerge. This Charism (Gift from God) given to Blessed Theresa grew like the mustard seed of the Good News of Jesus – first in her own heart, then in the hearts of young Women in her native Bavaria, across Europe and soon in America. Nourished by the Gospel, it grew to be a powerful tree of life and grace for countless others (Her words), "God's cause is the concern of our hearts." are now ours as we try to follow her command, "Do whatever He tell you."

--Sister Kathleen Drilling, SSND

Saint Anthony Mary Claret

Saint Anthony Claret was born in Sallent (Barcelona) on December 23, 1807, into a deeply Christian family. His love for God and for people guided his entire life from childhood. He was so compassionate that he couldn't bear seeing misfortune or misery without doing something to help. In his autobiography, he says, "I would take the bread out of my own mouth to give it to the poor."

As a diocesan priest, he always felt the voice of God calling him to go forth and preach. Thus, Anthony Claret, together with five priests, founded the Congregation of Missionaries Sons of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary—commonly known as the Claretians—in Vic, Spain, on July 16, 1849.

Later that year, Anthony Claret was appointed Archbishop of Santiago, Cuba. In six years as an Archbishop, he fought against slavery, created a farm school for poor children, set up a savings bank with a marked social character, founded popular libraries, and wrote two books on agriculture. His love for God and the people of Cuba almost cost him his life.

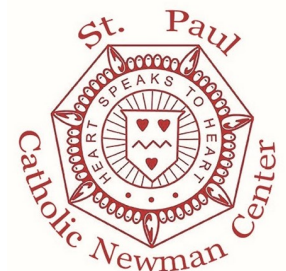

Later in life, persecution forced him to flee from Spain. He died in exile on October 24, 1870, at the monastery of Fontfroide, France.

At the end of our names, we put the initials C.M.F., which stand for the Latin words Cordis Mariae Filius, meaning "Son of the Heart of Mary."

--Father Rubi, C.M.F.
