Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 03, 2016

Readings: Is 66: 10-14; Gal 6: 14-18; Lk 10: 1-12, 17-20

Dear friends,

Beginning Tuesday evening, July 12, Sister Kathleen and I will be facilitating a six-session series on Pope Francis' recent exhortation, "The Joy of Love". Sessions will be held in the Cafeteria and run from 6 -8 pm. After an overview, we will explore the document in six sections:

- Family and the Bible. What does Scripture have to say about marriage and family?
- The State of the Family. There are many challenges facing families today that are important for us to understand.
- The Ideal and Real Life. Pope Francis wants us to embrace mercy when families don't meet our ideals.
- The Joy of Love & Marriage. Marriage is a wonderful gift from God, but it is often a place of challenges.
- The Joy of Parenting. Parents are the main ones who educate their own children. How can we best support them in preparing their children to be disciples in the world?
- Next Steps. What can our community do next to respond to Pope Francis' call to action?

The Joy of Love flowed from two "Synod on the Family" gatherings in Rome (in 2014 & 2015). The meetings had hundreds of participants from around the world, including bishops, priests, married couples, women, and leaders from other Christian denominations. Pope Francis quotes extensively from Synod documents in The Joy of Love.

Our faith tradition offers ideals for family life, but life is not perfect. How should the Church address this gap? This and many other topics will be discussed. Please join us for an enlightening, informative and, I'm sure, amusing series.

Peace and Love,

Deacon John

Need Someone to Listen?

Stephen Ministry is a one-to-one Christ-centered, caring ministry providing comfort to people who are hurting. Stephen Ministers are available to provide a trained caregiver to meet with you weekly and provide care and comfort in your time of need. If you feel lonely, have marital or financial problems, loss of a loved one or any other personal issue and don't know where to turn, contact Hazel, 299-3279 or the office to discuss meeting with a Stephen Minister.

Fortnight For Freedom

During this 50th anniversary year of the Second Vatican Council's landmark Declaration on Religious Liberty, the US Catholic bishops are, again, calling for a Fortnight for Freedom in the two weeks leading up to Independence Day. This observance is a national campaign designated by the church for teaching and support of religious liberty. Reflections for each day of the Fortnight can be found at www.usccb.org and link to "Fortnight for Freedom".
