Fifth Sunday of Easter, Year C

May 15, 2022

Readings: Acts 14:21-27; Rev 21:1-5a; Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

THE DEACON'S SPEAKIN'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Jesus said, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." He was speaking to His disciples, telling them to love the other disciples. He wasn't calling them to feel affection, but to act in loving ways. We may not always be able to feel affection for another person, but we can always act kindly toward them. "Love one another." Jesus is speaking to us – telling us – commanding us – to love others and act kindly toward them. Sometimes that's easy – sometimes it isn't.

When Jesus calls us to love one another, He's calling us to love the sweet lady who brought food for the college students on Wednesday night, but He's also calling us to love the person who wounded us with their sharp tongue.

When Jesus calls us to love one another, He's calling us to love the friendly couple with whom we spoke in the Cafeteria after Mass, but He's also calling us to love the person who opposes our pet project or blocks the realization of our dream.

When Jesus calls us to love one another, He's calling us to love the musicians who grace our church with lovely music, but He's also calling us to love the person who is afflicted with a closed mind and who offers constant criticisms.

When Jesus calls us to love one another, He's calling us to love the kid who works hard, is a good student, and an altar server at Mass, but He's also calling us to love the kid who is a "D" student, is always getting into trouble, and doesn't come to church.

When Jesus calls us to love one another, He's calling us to bear witness – to show the world what He has done for us. He says, "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

"Love one another", Jesus says. It's more than a saying – it's a commandment – an order – not a suggestion! "Love one another." It's the ways we spread the presence of Jesus in the world. People can ignore almost anything we say, but they can't ignore our love.

Who is Jesus calling you to love today? What is He calling you to do about it?

Peace and love,

Mission Statement

Gifted by God, called by Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, St. Paul Catholic Newman Center is a parish committed to serving the academic community and all those who choose to be part of our parish family. We dedicate ourselves to bringing the transformative power of Christ to the world through word and action.

Family Life Ministries

Joy of Love Moms Group invites families to the west playground after 9:30 Mass for an opportunity for children and families to meet, socialize and play together. Please join us!

Men's Scripture Reflection and Discussion Group meets Monday mornings after Mass from 8:30am to 9:15am in the Library to reflect upon and discuss the previous Sunday's scripture readings.

Marriage Ministry

Any person or couples interested in being a part of a planning committee for Marriage Preparation and / or Marriage Enrichment programs for the 2022-23 year are invited to contact John Prandini at 436-3434 ext. 107 or via email at prandinij@csufnewman.com. This group will meet to discuss ideas and plan classes, activities, events and retreats.

Prayer Ministries

Christian Meditation meets weekly on Tuesdays at noon in the Community Room for 20 minutes of silent meditation followed by a brief lesson about this ancient Christian prayer tradition and discussion. Christian meditation utilizes the mantra, "Maranatha" (a word in Jesus' own Aramaic language meaning, "Come, Lord Jesus") in order to quiet the mind and come to silence, meeting Jesus in the depth of our own being, beyond words or images. The group is a member of the World Community for Christian Meditation. Meetings are facilitated by Benita Lankford. For information email contact John Prandini at prandinij@csufnewman.com.

Name Tags

Ever see a familiar face at church and just can't remember their name? It happens to all of us! That is why starting this weekend and continuing weekly, we would ask everyone in attendance to wear a name tag. Name tags are available at a table in the hallway. Help us to get to know you!

Creation Care Tips

"Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more." - Revelations 21:1

Some Christians have used this passage to excuse the plundering of the earth, reasoning that God is going to give us a new one anyway, so why does it matter if we destroy this one? Such thinking is in direct contradiction with God's first commandment to the first human to "till and keep" the earth. Indeed, after every day of creation, God declared his work "good" or "very good." This world — all of God's natural creation — is a gift freely given to us by God which we are obligated to share with future generations. Choose one new thing you can do this week to reduce your environmental footprint: reduce your meat consumption, switch to buying recycled toilet paper, carpool or use public transit instead of driving alone, start buying in bulk rather than individual containers, etc.

From Father Byron

What would you say if someone is calling you to be a “disco-ball”? Well, Jesus is calling you to be one in the Gospel this weekend. Disco-balls are basically balls that reflect a spotlight shining on them. It is inevitable and actually required; this is what gives a purpose of existing to a disco-ball.

Today Jesus invites us to reflect his love for us through what we do and say. Lately, there are so many shadows that attempt to savagely darken our world, our lives and even our faith.

Yet, God is light and the light that we freely receive from our relationship with God, the light that we receive through the Sacraments and the light we receive from our encounter with Jesus in the Gospels, is the very light that will cast shadows.

Jesus shines when we reflect his kindness, hope and faith. So, let us be Jesus’ disco-balls and reflect that so that others can know that we are his and that we are doing our part in our covenant of faith: “I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” (John 13:31-33a, 34-35)

Pentecost Celebration

We will only have one (1) Mass during that weekend; please plan accordingly. We need your help. Please consider volunteering and signing up this weekend after Masses. Thanks for making history together!

Deacon John Farewell: Help!

Please email me or Jenna if you would like to help us have a special farewell weekend for Deacon John on the second weekend of July!

Also, Father Paul and I will attend our annual Claretian Assembly May 30th – June 3rd, 2022 in Chicago. I will be back on the evening of June 3rd and Father Paul will be back on June 6th.

Fr. Negro Scholarship.

We still have time (until 5:00pm tonight!!!)

Please, please, please help us spread the word about our 2022-23 Sergio P. Negro Scholarship application available to students this weekend in our website: www.csufnewman.com

Saintly Quote

"You must ask God to give you power to fight against the sin of pride which is your greatest enemy – the root of all that is evil, and the failure of all that is good. For God resists the proud." - St. Vincent de Paul

Have a Laugh

Man: What is a million years like to you?

God: Like one second.

Man: What is a million dollars like to you?

God: Like one penny.

Man: Can I have a penny?

God: Just a second.

Catholic Charities May Appeal

Those who are in need are never strangers. They are family. Jesus taught us this important virtue through the parable of the lost sheep. If someone in His flock is in peril, then we cannot rest until they are safe. When anyone suffers, our whole family suffers with them. It is our joyful duty as Catholics to seek them out and surround them with God's compassion and love.

The Annual May Appeal Collection for Catholic Charities will take place the weekend of May 14th and 15th. During this second collection, we are asking parishioners to reflect on their personal ability to make a difference for our brothers and sisters in Christ.

This appeal brings hope where hope is needed most. From the metropolitan areas surrounding our three brick-and-mortar sites to the rural, most impoverished and underserved areas in every corner of our Diocese. It brings hope to those who are hungry, homeless, seeking refuge, disaster-stricken, out-of-work and suffering.

As Catholic Charities continues to serve more people than ever before, we continue to pray that we are able to be a source of comfort and relief to all who suffer as we help them build a bridge of hope over troubled waters. Please consider a generous gift that will bring hope to those in the greatest of need. Every dollar donated during this second collection makes a difference.

For more information or to learn more about how you can help, please contact Ashlee Wolf at (559) 237-0851 or email awolf@ccdo.org.

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: We can do no lasting good for the world on our own. We need the support of a loving community. Only communities, not individuals, produce great works. We build up the kingdom of justice by being a kingdom of love. Jesus commanded us to love one another for good reason. It is from love that justice blossoms. The challenge this week is to do something that builds unity in your family and in your parish. Without love uniting you to others, you are a silent symphony to the world.

A Measure for Love

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Acts 14:21-27 - End of the first mission
- Revelation 21:1-5a - New heavens and new earth
- John 13:31-33a, 34-35 - A new commandment

There are teachings of Jesus that seem to sum up his message perfectly. The Golden Rule—"Do unto others as you would have them do to you"—is one example. Another appears in the Gospel passage from John today. "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" (Jn. 13:34).

If Jesus had left this new commandment at "love one another," it would have been open to more interpretation. What one person might consider love ("I beat my child to teach him a lesson because I love him") would be offensive to another person's understanding of love. If we think only in terms of "love one another" we might be tempted to reduce it to something like "Do no harm." That could let us off the hook for not being proactive to help others, as long as we aren't actively making someone's life harder.

Adding the line "as I have loved you, so you also should love one another" calls us to measure how we define love against how Jesus lived it out.

Jesus was honest and direct in calling people to accountability for their actions, and he challenged them to stretch to be better. But he didn't shame people. He didn't withhold forgiveness, no matter what the sins were. He always moved to bring people back into the community rather than condemning them to be outcasts. He stood up for those being cheated or exploited by the wealthy and powerful. He reached out to the sick and the

Sheepish Question:

How do people know that I'm a disciple of Jesus?

lame, offering his healing presence no matter how grotesque their illness or disfigurement was. Let us then love one another as Jesus showed us how.

Questions of the Week

1 Share an example of something done under the guise of "love" when deep down you know that is not what Jesus would have done.

2 What changes for you when "love one another" becomes "love one another as I have loved you"?
